

ACCEPTS NEW POSITION

PROF. MAGERS RESIGNS FROM NORMAL TO ACCEPT CHAIR AT MARQUETTE NORMAL SCHOOL.

Prof. S. D. Magers, who for the past ten years has been a member of the Normal College faculty, has resigned his position as assistant professor in natural sciences to become head of the biological department of the Marquette state normal.

PROF. S. D. MAGERS

Prof. Magers graduated from the state normal school at Normal, Ill., in 1886, after which he went to Fayetteville, Arkansas, where he remained for two years. While here he organized the first accredited high school in Arkansas. In 1888 he came to Houston, Texas, where he was principal for three years of the Hamilton ward school. From Texas he came to the University of Michigan where he remained for three years and then returned to his former school at Houston, Texas. In 1900 and 1901 he attended the University of Chicago where he received the M. A. degree and the following year came to Ypsilanti where he was instructor in natural science in the State Normal College and later was made Assistant Professor of Physiology.

Prof. Magers had done considerable institute work in the state of Illinois and also in the state of Texas before coming to this city. Since coming to Ypsilanti he has organized the work in bacteriology which course was the first of the kind given at the Normal school. He has recently worked out a new course at the Normal College which is called Teachers' Hygiene. This course was used for the first at the summer school this year. During his vacation when not engaged in teaching work he has spent considerable time at the Illinois University biological station located on the Illinois river, where he has made a special study of inland water forms.

Prof. Magers will leave the city in about two weeks for his new field of labor. During his ten years' residence in Ypsilanti he has been an efficient worker at the college and it was largely through his efforts that the new athletic grounds where the new baseball grounds are located, were recently secured. He has also been prominent in both church and city affairs. Both Prof. Magers and his family have many friends during their stay here who wish them success in their new home.

CREW OF WRECKED CAR DISMISSED WITHOUT TRIAL

Friday afternoon at three o'clock in Detroit, the postponed hearing of Conductor Fred Dresselhouse, and Motorman Woodin, who were charged with manslaughter in connection with the D. U. R. wreck, which occurred at Dearborn July 30, was held and the two men were discharged. It is understood that no testimony was introduced, the prosecutor not even being present, but the coroner, in compliance with instructions from the prosecuting attorney, discharged the men.

Mr. Dresselhouse is at the home of his parents on Williams street in Ann Arbor and it is reported that he is not exactly certain as to the reason for his discharge. "I suppose they could not find sufficient evidence against us," he is reported having said. "The justice simply told us that we were free and we walked out."

100,000 DROWN IN CHINA

Yangtze-Kiang Overflows with Frightful Results—500,000 Homeless

Hankow, China, Sept. 5.—The American mission at Wuhu has received a report that 100,000 persons have been drowned by the floods caused by the water flowing over the banks of the Yangtze-Kiang. The floods are the worst that have been experienced in many years. It is estimated that over 95 per cent of the crops have been destroyed.

Many thousands of square miles are now submerged, and the bodies of hundreds of persons lie unburied.

GOOD REPORTS FOR YEAR

LAST BUSINESS MEETING FOR 1911

—DR. LEESON UNANIMOUSLY INVITED FOR SECOND YEAR.

The closing business meeting of the First M. E. church in Ypsilanti for the year was conducted by the district superintendent, Dr. William Dawe, last evening at the Methodist church. The officers of the various church societies presented their annual reports and revealed the manifold activities which are being carried on by this church society. Dr. Gorton read the annual statement of the treasurer, which showed that $1,151.65 had been the income of the church for current local expenses during the year, as against $2,969.32 last year. A thousand dollars has been expended in various improvements on church and parsonage during the year. The church is in a fine, prosperous condition and carries only a small amount of indebtedness covering improvements made during recent years. A. E. Lewis was elected treasurer for the next year.

The pastor's report showed the largest gain in membership of any church in the district. The membership status is as follows: Deaths, 4; dismissed by letter, 30; received by letter, 103; received from probation, 49; net gain in membership, 119; total present membership, 707.

The report of the president of the Ladies' Aid society, Mrs. Guy Davis, mentioned among various activities pleasing custom of celebrating the birthdays of the elderly ladies of the church. Twenty-five ladies are seventy years of age or more and each one has been remembered with a party or special gifts of flowers and messages when they were unable to have a party. This part of the work has been especially in charge of Mesdames Lockwood, Deibel and Depev.

Three new members were added to the board of stewards: George Ross, Edward Simpson, and Mr. Shipman. Albert Graves was appointed secretary for the year and complimentary resolutions passed concerning the work of the pastor and expressing the unanimous wish of the board for his return for a second year.

The term of office of Dr. William Dawe ends with the close of this conference year. He has been six years in the important office and will return into the pastorate at the coming session of conference to be held at Flint. Resolutions of appreciation of his administration were passed and recorded.

The annual conference convenes Sept. 20 at Flint with Bishop William Anderson as president. The laymen of the Ypsilanti church will be represented at the gathering by W. J. Clark with Mrs. C. T. Allen as substitute.

MRS. HANNAH WARD DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Hannah E. Ward, for more than fifty years a resident of this city, passed away at 5:25 on Saturday evening at the home of her cousin, J. H. Williams, Pearl Street. She had been ill all the summer, though not confined to her room but for a few weeks. Had she lived until December 9, Mrs. Ward would have been 80 years old. She was a member of St. Luke's Episcopal church and its rector, Rev. William H. Gardam, officiated at the funeral, which was held this morning at ten o'clock from the Williams home. Interment was in Highland cemetery.

Mrs. Ward is survived by two cousins, Miss Roseanna Norris and Miss Beach, of this city, two nephews, Alban Ladd of this city and Mark Ladd of Plymouth, and two nieces, Mrs. Baird of Howell and Miss Paddock of Lansing.

DEMONSTRATION FOR M'NAMARAS

Labor Day Parade in New York Takes on That Aspect.

NO PROCESSION IN CHICAGO

Union Organizations in Western Metropolis Save Expense—Observance of Day in Many Cities of Country.

New York, Sept. 5.—The annual parade down Fifth avenue of the organizations in the Central Federated Union, by which Labor Day has been celebrated for many years in Manhattan, was made a McNamara demonstration.

Banners were seen at frequent intervals in the line of the marchers with inscriptions condemnatory of the alleged kidnapping of J. J. McNamara, secretary treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, when he was arrested on the charge of complicity in the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times building. Six men preceded the locals in the line of the House-smiths' and Bridgemen's Union carrying a large American flag, one holding each corner and two grasping the sides, for contributions to the McNamara defense fund and another man carried a banner with the words: "If You Desire Justice for McNamara Throw in Your Share for the Defense."

How much was thrown in by the bystanders along the route could not be learned. McNamara buttons were also offered for sale.

The parade was a large one, but there were fewer women paraders than last year.

NO LABOR DAY PARADE

Chicago Union Officials Decide That Pageant Costs Too Much.

Chicago, Sept. 5.—Organized labor did not parade in Chicago. Various unions and trade organizations celebrated the holiday with picnics and other festive affairs in the parks and suburbs.

When the proposition of parading was presented to the Chicago Federation of Labor a month ago its delegates decided that a pageant cost too much. Union treasuries are being drawn upon for a defense fund for the McNamara brothers, who are in jail in Los Angeles charged with having dynamited the Los Angeles Times building.

John Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago federation, said that organized labor in Chicago had decided that Labor day parades entailed useless expenditure of thousands of dollars. He said that organized labor would not parade again soon, if ever, in the present generation.

Men Bare Heads for McNamaras. Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 5.—Five bands playing the "Marseillaise," nearly 25,000 union men and women marched in the Labor Day parade here. Under orders from Mayor Alexander, the original route was changed so that the marchers did not pass the county jail, where the McNamara brothers, the alleged dynamiters, are confined pending trial next month. But when the marchers reached the intersection of Temple and Main streets, the nearest point to the prison, they doffed their hats and marched bare-headed past the corner.

Addressed by Champ Clark. Davenport, Ia., Sept. 5.—Five thousand representatives of organized labor in Davenport, Rock Island and Moline took part in the Labor Day parade here, headed by Speaker Champ Clark of the United States house of representatives. Speaker Clark addressed a monster meeting at Suburban Island.

Chicagoans Speak at Bloomington. Bloomington, Ill., Sept. 5.—Following a Labor Day parade with 3,000 men in line two Chicagoans, Arthur M. Lewis and J. J. Collins, addressed mass meetings of trade unionists, bringing to a climax the most notable celebration of labor's holiday ever held in central Illinois.

Mitchell Speaks at Ottumwa. Ottumwa, Ia., Sept. 5.—With John Mitchell, vice president of the American Federation of Labor and former president of the United Mine Workers of America as the principal speaker, the labor unions of Ottumwa, Oskaloosa and Albia carried out an extensive Labor Day program here.

10,000 Men March at Indianapolis. Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 5.—The feature of the Labor Day celebration here was a parade of more than 10,000 members of organized labor. John P. Frey of Cincinnati, O., delivered the principal address.

MAY LOSE NOTED NAME

"Michigan Avenue," Chicago, May Be Reduced to "Zero."

Chicago, Sept. 5.—Michigan avenue, one of the great show streets of the country, is in danger of losing its name. Alderman Hey has submitted a renaming plan to the council committee on street nomenclature and he proposes to call Michigan avenue "Zero avenue."

Wabash avenue would lose its identity in the new name "First avenue." State street, widely known on account of its great retail dry goods stores, would become "Second avenue." Dearborn street would lose the historical significance of its name under the new appellation "Third avenue."

PICNIC AT RECREATION

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH MEMBERS ENJOY GOOD LABOR DAY CELEBRATION.

(By H. C. Rankin)

The Presbyterian church picnic at Recreation Park was enjoyed Monday by about a hundred members. The day was ideal; the park in its best attire, worthy the pains-taking efforts of the officials in charge.

The happy-go-lucky crowd, the dinner, the lemonade and ice cream, the games, the contests, the good time, all came off as advertised.

Everybody said there never was such good coffee, quantities or it, with an abundance of finest cream—a certain Pearl street woman drank five cups of the delicious beverage. One boy had fifteen cups of lemonade, five dishes of ice cream, seven pieces of cake, and other things in proportion.

All the guests, big and little, helped to clean up the repast. There were more than twelve basketfuls remaining.

Messrs. Boyce, Garrett, Murdoch, Arbaugh, Strong, Webb, Peet, Mesdames, Webb, Garrett, Boyce, Roberts and a dozen other men and women saw to it that the little folks had the time of their lives.

It was worth going to see Dr. Garrett pitch in the ball game. There were no hits on him. Incidentally it came out that the doctor was some years ago Iowa's crack pitcher and one of the champions of the middle west. Supt. Arbaugh was onto his job. Dr. Paton made several two baggers. Prof. Magers surprised many by his skill in catching fly balls. Prof. Peet played third base like a professional.

The boys however beat the older fellows by a score of 15 to 10. There was only one casualty of any moment, resulting in a broken nose and two sprained fingers.

Everybody, however, pronounced this picnic the greatest ever in the history of the church; Recreation

AMUSEMENTS HAVE IMPORTANT PLACE IN CURRICULUM OF LIFE

SO SAYS PROF. BARBOUR IN ABLE DISCUSSION AT UNION SERVICE-CITES INCIDENTS SUPPORTING SUN-DAY RECREATION

Life is a serious business. It is as Longfellow puts it, real, and earnest. All growth demands struggle, hard work, high ideals, putting into the ordinary pursuits of life, if you please, noble motives. For its highest development it needs, in my judgment, faith in God, communion with the Holy Spirit, and an entering into the unselfish love of the Master Teacher for all mankind.

Consistent with this high idealism amusement has its legitimate place. It, too, is a law of life. The healthy mind demands amusement, amusement in the sense of pleasing and agreeable entertainment, diversion, occupation, for a time, upon something quite apart from the serious business of life. The purpose of such amusement is to give the mind needed change, relaxation, refreshment, in order that it may come back to the struggle of life with elasticity and rebound, with courage and optimism, and hope. We should have fewer break-downs, fewer suicides, fewer members of insane asylums, if the American people, in the last one hundred and fifty years had learned how to relieve the strain of business life by engaging in a great variety of healthful amusements. From this standpoint the study of amusements, their function, their variety as adapted to the variety and manifoldness of our complex life in city and country,—such study belongs to any system of Christian Ethics as truly as the study of Home and Foreign Missions.

CLEW TO AUTO MURDER

Slain Chauffeur Had Robbers as Passengers.

Crystal Lake Marshal Says Number of Car Is That Used by Yeggmen He Routed Recently.

Chicago, Sept. 5.—The body of Frederick Wennerstrom, 3167 North Clark street, owner and driver of a public automobile, with a stand alongside the county building, was found in the Fox river at Cary, Ill., wrapped in a lap robe and with two bullet holes in the back of the head, and a sensational circumstance came to light as a result of which, according to the police, a sinister motive for the mysterious murder may be revealed. When told by Detective Larson of Chicago, that the number of Wennerstrom's machine is "4284 Illinois," Marshal E. H. Wollenberg of Crystal Lake declared that was the number of a machine at whose occupants he had fired several shots three weeks ago on the occasion of an attempt to rob the post-office in that town.

At that time a little band of men drove up to the postoffice at night and had managed to open the front door when Marshal Wollenberg appeared on the scene. The men sprang into the tonneau of the auto, the marshal says, and put on full speed. As they sped away he fired several shots after them but failed to hit any one. But he particularly noticed, he averred, that the number of the machine was "4284 Illinois."

Wennerstrom's machine was found by J. M. Triner, 1665 South Millard avenue, Chicago, who has a cottage at Crystal Lake. He discovered it near Algonquin on the Elgin road. It was in a cornfield five miles from Crystal Lake.

Prof. Barbour then spoke of the echoes of the old Puritan sentiment in regard to amusements found in modern life, the great confusion that obtains as to the legitimacies and illegitimacies of amusements, giving many interesting and enlightening touches derived from his own personal experiences in his early teaching days. Coming down to the immediate present, he spoke of the changed and changing sentiment that is going on in so many minds in regard to sports, theatre, card-playing, etc., making especial reference to the growing custom in the large cities of utilizing Sunday afternoon for outdoor life and outdoor sports. He cited as an example the baseball games on Belle Isle Sunday afternoons, and without expressing his personal opinion, quoted a New York City clergyman who made no objection to the young men of his church playing golf Sunday afternoons after attending his morning service and assisting in the work of his Sunday School.

Towards the end of his address he declared that the supreme question for the settlement of all the problems in relation to the world at ease and seeking its pleasure was what the Great Master and Teacher Himself would do and say. How he would look on life as we have and live it now, what his attitude both of sympathy and correction would be, and declared that no authority could go behind him, no word could possibly have the same relation to living problems that the word of Christ himself would have, where he presents, as he is present, among us. The whole address was replete with interest and instruction and threw much light upon a great many things that are of current interest.

GOTCH VICTORY OVER RUSSIAN "LION" WAS DECISIVE AND QUICK

Chicago, Sept. 5.—Outgamed, out-strengthened and outfought, George Hackenschmidt, the Russian lion, laid down his hope of the world's wrestling championship to Frank Gotch, world's champion.

The first fall came in 14 minutes 18 1/5 seconds on a reverse body hold and wristlock. The second fall came in 5 minutes 31 1/5 seconds. Gotch, using his famous toe hold that won him the championship three years ago, Hackenschmidt, untrained, was floored. He had no chance whatever. He was a beaten man when he entered the ring.

Gotch, trained to the minute, and seeming the acme of physical perfection, beat Hack at every stage of the game. The masterful strength which Hack was supposed to possess did not show to advantage when Gotch clashed with the lion. The Iowa farmer was simply too good for the Russian. He pitted physical strength against a man who had practically no strength. The result was inevitable.

The second and final fall came so quickly that the great crowd failed to appreciate the fact that the match was ended. The wrestlers had sparred for an opening. Like a flash Gotch caught the Russian and dropped the legs, spun him around and dropped him on his stomach. Gotch's head was at the lion's feet, his legs were wrapped about Hack's body.

He worried the Russian for a few minutes about the legs and then in a twinkling, threw both hands around Hack's left foot. There was a quick sharp twist. A look of intense pain passed over Hack's face. He sought to break; he sought to tear his pained leg from Gotch's grip, but the Iowa farmer was too strong. He twisted again and Hack gave up. Referee Smith's hand fell on Gotch's shoulders and the Humboldt farmer still was the world's champion.

Experts say that if the match had been framed up it unquestionably would have been prolonged for an hour or more to give the public a run for its money. It simply was a case of the best man winning—in the shortest possible time.

An immense crowd witnessed the match at the South Side baseball park. Every seat was filled and 35,000 tickets had been sold.

Just before the bout opened, Referee Smith announced that all bets would be called off. The referee said:

"I have called off the bets at the request of Chief of Police McWeeny and President Comiskey."

STATE TAX COMMISSION
ESTIMATES.

This week would make ourselves more wealthy by having a state board declare us to be and, if it would only make our property return larger dividends, commensurate with the value placed thereon by the state board, it would be easier to pay more taxes and consequently to continue to support an increasingly expensive government.

The property of the state in all probability has been undervalued. The question now is, after the state board of equalization has completed its work, is it still undervalued, or have we reached the present limit of value? The grand total for the state is $2,290,000,000, or an increase of $555,000,000 over the equalized value as fixed by the same board five years ago, and it is $673,552,822 less than the value placed on the state by the state tax commission.

We of course have created a large amount of wealth in the last five years, but whether we have created more than half a billion and have retained it in such a form as to be a just subject for taxation many will, perhaps question. The complete table of valuation for each county will strike many, we believe, as difficult of reconciliation—our own county, for instance, $46,500,000, while Jackson is only $45,000,000 or Oakland at $45,000,000, or Monroe at $28,000,000 or Genesee at $50,700,000. We of course are glad that we are so much wealthier than these other counties if we really are and our adjustment is as fair as is theirs.

Criminal, Not Commercial.

Judge A. A. Adams of the Indiana Appellate court, says the Indianapolis Star, tells a story of a man who was a good horse trader, but, through lack of a mathematical education, was unable to determine his per cent. of profits. "This man," relates Judge Adams, "made a good trade, and he was anxious to know his real per cent. of profit, so he consulted a school teacher. I bought a horse the other day for $25 and sold it for $175; now, what was my per cent. of profit?" he asked the teacher. "That," replied the teacher, "was not profit; it was larceny."

ASKS THE COURT TO ORDER WAR

Dr. J. E. Buckley Would Have Mexico Invaded.

HE SUES PRESIDENT TAFT.

Chicago Physician Alleges That Germany and Japan Are in Scheme to Land Troops—Rights of Americans Endangered, He Says.

President Taft has been sued in a court of law to compel him to perform administrative or, as lawyers would say, "ministerial" acts. Dr. James Edward Buckley, a practicing physician of Chicago, who has twice instituted proceedings against Secretary of State Philander C. Knox, brought an action against President Taft in the Washington District supreme court and asked that a mandamus be issued to compel the chief executive to show cause why he should not be compelled to direct attention of congress to the conditions in Mexico and recommended that an army for the conquest of that republic be promptly dispatched thither by way of the gulf and the Pacific.

Sees Invasion by Germany.

This should be done, the complainant states, to prevent a "ruinous war, which would entail the loss of the Philippines, the Hawaiian Islands and the canal," through the co-operation of the Japanese now in Mexico with German troops.

Dr. Buckley contemplates an invasion of Mexico by the Germans to "enforce the death penalty on Mexicans for the murder of German subjects and an assault on a German woman." The president must appear in court in person or by attorney if the court should entertain the complaint.

Files the Papers Personally.

The suit was filed by the physician personally. On Aug. 9 and again on Oct. 3, both of last year, Dr. Buckley sued in the same court for a mandamus against Secretary of State Knox to compel him to perform certain acts. Both suits were dismissed.

The president is accused of "indifference toward the life and liberty of Americans and others residing in Mexico." It is declared that a week before the last adjournment of congress the chief executive possessed information which would have justified an army and navy demonstration down there. He demands to know why congress was not informed about it. The sending of the soldiery to Texas is characterized as a political move.

Visions of a Money Plot.

The Diaz administration is called a "Wall street exporting agency," with Henry Taft, brother of the president, as its "chief attorney." The president is charged with having embarrassed and handicapped the insurgent party in Mexico by mobilizing the army on the frontier. The petition further states that the Mexican situation has been "dovetailed with American money interests." Henry Taft is said to see things from a Wall street point of view, and the physician thinks he "communicates his viewpoint to the president." This, he declares, can be confirmed by Attorney General Wickensham, who is mentioned in the petition as Henry Taft's former law partner.

Details of alleged holdups, robberies and other unlawful acts are set out in the petition. The cost of filing the petition was $10, which Dr. Buckley paid.

GOLD FOUND IN IDAHO.

Chinese Trader Tells of Discovery

Made on Exploration Trip.
Placer ground rich in gold has been discovered in the Blackfoot district in northern Idaho, ninety-three miles southeast of Spokane, by Ah Yen, a Chinese trader, according to his statements to officials of the United States customs house in Spokane on returning from an exploration trip along the Washington-Idaho border.

The deposits, which are four miles from a flowing stream and require not less than fifteen miles of dunes to convey water to the gravel, were found more than thirty years ago by two Chinese prospectors, who were killed and robbed by a white man.

Yen says that a woman who sewed the poke to hold the miners' gold told the rustler of the find of the Chinese and urged him to locate claims. Instead he murdered the miners and carried off their nuggets.

LABOR VICTORIOUS

A POEM FOR LABOR DAY

By JAMES A. EDGERTON

Copyright, 1911, By American Press Association

IN all the chapters of Freedom's story,
Splashed o'er with glory,
Since Time began;
In all the chronicles made entrancing
Through men advancing
The cause of Man,
In all the struggles that made Truth clearer
And brought earth nearer
To brotherhood,
We find the friends of the right side hated,
Calumniated,
Misunderstood.

IF God-led prophets, if saints and sages,
Were paid their wages
By fire and sword;
If priests of progress were balked and baffled,
With stake or scaffold
Their last reward,
Should those of the present find food for wonder
If they be under
The selfsame curse,
There placed by life servers of form and letter,
Who make the better
Appear the worse?

THOUGH crimes there be against love of neighbor,
That call on Labor,
To work her shame,
She has no shield for the baseborn actions
Of hate-led factions
That use her name.
Her cause is still for the poor and lowly,
And high and holy
Its beacons shine,
Belonging to all men, all climes and races,
The sweat of whose faces
Proclaims her sign.

I KNOW not what scheme of Greed to crush
her
Has sought to enmesh her
In seeming wrong,
I only know that no cause is whiter,
No hope shines brighter,
Man's path along.
I know that fraud can never take from us
Her worldwide promise
Of final peace
And that by the spirit of high endeavor
Her truths forever
Shall find increase.

WHATEVER mistakes may have put upon her
A false dishonor,
Wrought by the few;
Whatever conspiracies may unfold her,
We still behold her
As fair and true.
From those who in shortness of sight defame
her,
The blind, who claim her,
To lead the blind,
Herself she will purge in the fire of duty
And shine in beauty
To all mankind.

SHE follows the gleam, with face turned downward,
To lead men onward,
With thought to bless.
Her cause is that of the wage-bond toiler,
Against the spoiler
Of selfishness;
Her goal, to lift the lowest thing human
And to illumine
The darkest brain
And out of the surplus of men's endeavor
To build forever
The common gain.

THOUGH her soldiers are battered and thrown into prison,
Yet others are risen
To lead her fight,
Till Justice at last shall be in fashion
And all feel the passion
Of Civic Right;
Till Labor's hosts, in all lands victorious,
The New Age glorious
Bring to birth—
The cause of Humanity, sacred and holy,
The faith of the lowly,
The hope of earth!

Facts
About
Motherhood

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has a medical treatment at the time of child-birth, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when the strain is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The uncomfortable things that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

It isn't as though the experience came upon them unawares. They have ample time in which to prepare, but they, for the most part, trust to chance and pay the penalty.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy, and strong.

Any woman who would like special advice in regard to this matter is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. Her letter will be held in strict confidence.

Woman Enters Police School.

One of the two policemen recently appointed for Christiania, Norway, has entered the police school. During her two months' course she will receive instruction in such laws as police officers are required to be acquainted with in general police duties and in writing reports. After she begins active service she will have charge of the social purity department of the force.

CURIOUS BITS
OF HISTORY

By A. W. MACY.

A MAD QUEEN.

One of the most pathetic characters in history is Juana, daughter of Ferdinand and Isabella. Her father was king of Aragon and her mother queen of Castile. She was the third child and the second daughter, but by the deaths of her older brother and sister she became heir to the Castile throne. She was married to Archduke Philip, son of Emperor Maximilian of Austria. In her young womanhood she became mentally unbalanced and was known as "La Loca," The Mad. Her mother died in 1504, and she became queen of Castile. Owing to her mental incapacity her husband exercised the royal power and administered the affairs of the kingdom. He died two years later, and she is said to have kept watch over his coffin for many days in the belief that he would return to life. Shortly afterward she was placed in the castle of Tor-desillas, and never knew liberty again, though she survived nearly fifty years. Notwithstanding her insanity, she takes high rank as a mother queen; for two of her sons became Holy Roman emperors. One of them, Charles V., was the greatest European ruler of the sixteenth century.

Kidney Troubles Attack Ypsilanti Men and Women, Old and Young. Kidney ills seize young and old. Come quickly with little warning. Children suffer in their early years. Can't control the kidney secretions. Girls are languid, nervous, suffer pain.

Women worry, can't do daily work. Men have lame and aching backs. The cure for man, woman or child. Is to cure the cause—the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills reach the cause. Ypsilanti testimony proves it.

Mrs. Charles Wilkinson, 513 S. Huron St., Ypsilanti, Mich., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Weinmann-Matthews Co.'s drug store, brought good results in my son's case. About three years ago he had an attack of typhoid fever and after that he complained of backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble. When stooping or lifting, his back bothered him more than ever and often there was sediment in the kidney secretions, plainly proving that his kidneys were disordered. The contents of two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills removed every symptom of this trouble and in return for this great improvement I take pleasure in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills."

Sudden End of Great Writers.

The anniversary of the death of Charles Dickens, synchronizing this year with the celebration of the Thackeray centenary, recalls in what simarly sudden guise death came to the two great novelists, says the London Chronicle. Dickens, who was seemingly in his usual health on June 8, had a sudden seizure on the morning of June 9, and expired within a few hours. Thackeray, after a busy day in his library writing and correcting "Denis Duval" passed quietly away in his sleep on December 24, 1863. The end of yet another great Victorian writer was equally sudden. Sir George Trevelyan has told how on entering Macaulay's study one morning in December, 1859, he found his uncle sitting at the table dead, with the first number of the Cornhill Magazine lying before him open at the first chapter of Thackeray's "Lord the Widower."

AUSTRALIANS TOP CUP AVERAGES

Antipodeans Lead World in Playing For Davis Tennis Trophy.

ALWAYS STRONG IN SINGLES.

Americans Show Way to Englishman in International Contests—Hugh Doherty Was Greatest of All Lawn Tennis Players.

A resume of the history of competition for the Davis cup, the famous lawn tennis trophy now held by Australasia, shows that America has been much the most prolific in playing contests and leads England in its general average of wins and is in turn led by Australia. England shows a marked superiority in the doubles game to both the United States and Australia, due almost entirely to the wonderful ability in this style of play and perfect team work of the "big and little Dohs," as the Doherty brothers were affectionately nicknamed, while Australia's strong showing in singles and relatively poor work in doubles are accounted for in like manner, for the great Brookes and scarcely less great Wilding are not so invincible as a doubles combination as when in their true element, singles competition.

Our own average in both branches was seriously affected two seasons ago when America's youthful representatives, Long and McLoughlin, suffered that overwhelming defeat at the hands of the Australasian stars, winning but one set in five matches.

Have Won 96½ Sets.
Again, lumping preliminary and final matches together for the purpose of analysis, a closer study shows that America has won a total of 96½ sets and lost 82½ in singles, the unusual half a set resulting from an unfinished tied match in the first contest with England, and has won 27 and lost 25 in doubles, leaving a balance in our favor of 16 sets.

In her six ties Australasia has captured 49 and lost 39 sets in singles and won 12 out of 25 in doubles, her balance being only nine, but having in singles an average far better than our own.

England has 56½ sets to her credit in singles and has lost 61½, while her record in doubles is 21 wins to 16 losses, or a total of 77½ each defeats and victories.

In games the total score reads: America (singles), won 828, lost 853; (doubles), won 222, lost 191.
England (singles), won 548, lost 554; (doubles), won 222, lost 191.
Australasia (singles), won 518, lost 448; (doubles), won 159, lost 164.

Hugh Doherty a Wonder.

Turning now to the more personal and therefore interesting statistics of individual records, it appears at a glance that that of Hugh L. Doherty, "the Little Do," stands in a class by itself. He not only won the English singles title five times (1902-06) and paired with his brother, the doubles championship eight times (1897 to 1901, 1903, 1904 and 1905), captured countless less important titles on the other side and in Europe, but won the American championship in singles in 1903 and in doubles in that and the following year.

His remarkable ability was used quite as effectively in the service of his country, for he engaged in eight international contests and was never defeated, although Larned almost turned the trick once and twice forced him to five set matches, as did Ward and Little.

Of the other English players S. H. Smith and P. L. Risley also kept their states unsurmised, winning four and two international matches respectively, with no defeats, but the latter's victories were against the weak Belgium team.

Heavy Luggage.

Every tramp squares and squares with a heavy bag or suit case in your hand—the weight apparently increasing every minute? It's trying, nerve-racking and decidedly uncomfortable, isn't it? People who have experienced this will surely call down blessings upon the head of the inventor of raton or straw bags and suit cases. They have so little weight and the cost is so slight that every girl or man who goes away for short trips where a small case is necessary and where the luggage must be carried by hand should invest in one of these sensible luggage carriers.

You can't get better than best. There is a standard of material and manufacture in the prepared roofing business that insures longest possible wear and least repairs. This standard represents the absolute limit—the top notch of roofing quality, and Vulcanite is the roofing that sets this standard.

You can pay higher prices than we ask for Vulcanite. But no matter what you pay, you can't improve on Vulcanite quality. And less money than we ask can't bring money's worth. A smaller price won't let the maker give you a roof made good enough to make good.

Vulcanite Roofing

Find out how easy it is to lay. Anyone who can drive a nail can lay a Vulcanite roof. Ask users about Vulcanite. They call it, "The Lifetime Roof." Ask them why. You'll keep money in your pocket that would otherwise be needlessly spent if you'll investigate roofing.

We have published a book of tests, heretofore trade secrets. It is called "Ten Years Wear In Ten Minute Tests." Ask our dealer for a copy. He'll gladly supply you.

ABOUT RUGS

There are so many different grades of domestic rugs sold under a given name that the average buyer is confused. Axminster rugs, for instance, can be sold all the way from $15.00 to $30.00. There are six distinct grades of Brussels. So it is always well to look twice before buying a rug bargain which looks cheap.

There are times when you can pick up real rug bargains, but for your own sake, unless you are an expert, we suggest you buy only of a store in which you have confidence.

Of our rug display we speak with special pride. You will find here now the largest stock of rugs we ever bought—a selection that means much to your satisfaction.

We have no discontinued, defective or close out rugs. Our rugs are personally selected for their attractive patterns and lasting wear. Just now we make a special showing of moderate priced rugs, suitable for students' rooms. They are mounted on display racks—it is a pleasure to show you. Rugs sold on easy payments.

Free for Stomach and Bowels

We are in receipt of letters from Mrs. Eva Gaskins, 304 Madison St., Topeka, Kans., and Mr. P. H. Gavelas, Wagoner, Okla., as well as many others, telling about the wonderful results they have secured in the cure of their stomach and liver troubles by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

This remedy, as all readers doubtless know, has been before the public for a generation and is now being more extensively used than any other remedy for stomach, liver and bowel complaints. According to reliable testimony, it seems to be a very quick and lasting cure for constipation, indigestion and dyspepsia, liver trouble, biliousness, headaches, sour stomach, gas on the stomach, drowsiness after eating and similar disorders. It is a liquid with tonic effect, and so mild and gentle in action that a child as well as a grown person can take it, in fact, it has no equal for children, women and old people.

It arouses the flow of gastric juice, and by a peculiar action trains the stomach and bowel muscles to again do their work naturally, and in time medicines of all kinds can be dispensed with. A free sample bottle can be had for trial by sending your address to the doctor, for in this way Mrs. Gaskins, Mr. Gavelas and many others first learned of the cure. Later, when satisfied it is the remedy you need, do as others are doing and buy it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 24 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.
